Speaking of CARDS

THE OLD ARMY GAME
The continued popularity of the new TV quiz show, "21," based on the card game of the same name, has brought about a renewal of interest in this old favorite. Known to many American card players by the name of Blackjack, to the French as Vingt-et-un and to the British as Van
John Twenty-one is one of the most ancient of all card games but one that has retained its popularity even to the present.

Twenty-one was played in Europe for more than one hundred years before it made its way to America in the early 1800's. Becoming the vogue in San Francisco at the time of the gold rush, it was played all through the wild and wooly West. During the first World War, the game attained such popularity among the doughboys in France that it won the now famous title, "the old Army game."
There are many reasons for the popularity of Twenty-one. It is simple, and may be taught to inexperienced players with unusual ease. It is an interesting game and skillful play is possible but not necessary. Any number of people can play, and the game is not broken up if some of them decide to stop.

Object of the game is simple: to obtain from the dealer cards whose pips add up to (or close to) twenty-one without exceeding it.

The cards are valued as follows:
Ace: 1 or 11, at the option of the player; King, Queen or Jack, 10; other cards, the number of their pips.

If a player's first two cards are an ace and a face-card (or a ten) giving him a total of exactly 21, he has a "natural." This wins automatically.

Twenty-one or Blackjack is a game of skill and contains many other points of fine play. As to why it is called Blackjack, several theories have been advanced. The most believable of these is that originally an ace and a jack of one of the black suits was the only "natural" hand.

If you would like to obtain a free copy of the complete rules for playing Twenty-one or Blackjack, send a card or letter to Playing Cards, Dept. AH, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Evelyn Ave., Albany.

Legion Auxiliary, Sewing Club members will meet at the home of Mrs. Pauline Sampietro, 749 Madis-son Street, Nov. 1. Dessert and coffee to be served at noon. Members will work on carpet slippers to be given to veterans at Oakland V. A. Hospital.

the organization.

LEWIS M. HOWELL
Mayor of the City of Albany (COUNTY OF ALABAMA) CITY OF ALBANY

I, MYRTLE J. McLEAN, City Clerk of the City of Albany, California, do hereby certify that the whole number of members of the City Council of the said City is five; that the foregoing Ordinance, being Ordinance No. 57-034, was passed and adopted by the said City Council, approved and signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk of said City, all at a regular meeting of the said Council on the 28th day of October, 1957, A.D., and that the same was so passed and adopted by the following vote:

NOES: None.
ABSENT: None.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of the City of Albany this 28th day of October, 1957.

MYRTLE J. McLEAN,
City Clerk of the City of Albany
Pub. Nov. 1, 1957

with the building department before constructing or remodeling any structure on his property.

The city engineer has learned that home-owners who check first with the building inspection department save money by avoiding construction errors and are more pleased in the long run when they have built firmly and safely as required by the building code.

There are no exceptions in Albany. Some cities do not require a building permit under a certain cost. Albany, however, has no minimum. That's notwithstanding "free materials" and "I'm going to do all the work myself so there will be no labor cost."

Available in the city engineer's office is a Sanborn book showing existing improvements to each Albany property. The book is brought up to date annually to show new buildings and eliminating those demolished.

Cost of a building permit is based on improvements valued at square feet, type of construction and occupancy. Albany uses a national rate basis and revises the valuations as construction costs vary.

Function of the building department is to prevent ill-advised expenditures and protection against failures.

Building department personnel includes John Anderson, assistant plumbing and building inspector, Bill Stahlberg, assistant electrical inspector, and "Johnny" Grisham, senior secretary.

The Albany Street Maintenance crew handles all street and sewer repairs plus curb and sidewalk, street sewage and painting. The crew also cleans and repairs creeks and culverts and does minor construction improvements.

Foreman of the maintenance crew is George Wannop, assistant is Martin Camera, equipment operator is Dick Prescott. The street maintenance men are John Erickson, Tedd Hutt and Bill Guidici.

Engineer McAuley graduated from UC in '48 with a BS in engineering, was a contractor and bridge engineer in the California Division of Highways for seven years. He served in the Army Engineers as a T-Sergeant in Hawaii from 1942-45. He and his wife, Gladys, have two children, Sharon, nine, and Mike, four.

Hired 1 1/2 years ago under Albany City Charter, McAuley has a number of duties and titles:

Director of Public Works, Superintendent of Streets, Building Official, Building, Plumbing and Electrical Inspector, Superintendent of Public Buildings, ex-officio member of the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Show them the Way...this week

A child's trust is a precious thing.
Instinctively your little ones rely upon your example...
so the pattern you set becomes their pattern, too.

By taking them to worship with you every week they will come to know God...to be at ease with Him...to feel the strength and warmth of His love.
And you will be building the foundation for a richer and happier life for your whole family.

SPEAKING OF CARDS

ARE WOMEN TOP BRIDGE PLAYERS?

Not college women, if the results of the 1956 National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament are to be believed. Winners of this year's contest have just been announced for the eleventh annual event.

Women have failed to capture the top prize in the past three years. In 1954, the title went to a team of men from the University of California at Berkeley. In 1955, it went to a team of men from the University of Michigan. In 1956, it went to a team of men from the University of Wisconsin.

However, women have been successful in other categories. In the 1956 National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament, the women's team from the University of California at Berkeley won the title. They defeated the men's team from the University of Michigan in the final round.

The women's team from the University of California at Berkeley was led by Betty Coed. She was the only woman to win a top prize in the tournament. She won the title in the 1956 National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament.

on the East-West Boards. In second place on the North-South Boards were Kent McCullough and Don Lytle of the University of Kansas and John L. Howell and Donald J. Seldeen of the California Institute of Technology.

You have to go all the way down the list of winners to fifth place before you find two coeds from Bryn Mawr College—Katie Westervelt and Anne Wake—among the ranking Bridge players of the nation's colleges.

The continued failure of women Bridge players to rank high in the national college tourney is puzzling in the face of all surveys which show that more women than men play Bridge. The American Contract Bridge League maintains that the reason women don't fare as well as men in college Bridge competition is because the young ladies don't possess the physical prowess that men do. The Bridge League adds that women are just as intelligent as men when it comes to executing an end play or understanding the proper response to an opening three bid but men are stronger and stand up better under the strain of competition.

Whatever the reason, Betty Coed will have to "wait till next year" in her patient attempt to triumph over Joe College for national Bridge honors.

While one finds company in himself and his pursuits, he cannot feel old, no matter what his years may be — A. B. Alcott.

Automobile Races Had Beginnings In Late 19th Century

Almost anywhere you go in America today you can find yourself some kind of automobile race going on. It may be some local hot rods or a stock car race or some high-powered cars on the great big oval, but somehow there will usually be a race to see. And from the very earliest days of the automobile, according to the National Automobile Club, Americans have indulged themselves in this popular pastime.

Well before the turn of the century, the Wisconsin legislature felt that they had to do something to encourage the building of successful self-propelled vehicles, so they set up a two-hundred mile course from Madison to Green Bay and back, let it be known that there was a purse of ten thousand dollars waiting for the winner, and then called for entries from all around the land.

Two cumbrous steam vehicles showed up and, with much hissing and puffing, took their places at the starting line. Two weeks later the speedier of the two monsters came rumbling across the finish line and the dust covered driver walked off with the ten thousand dollar purse.

A little later, in 1895, a Chicago journalist by the name of Fred Adams induced publisher Kohlstaad of the Chicago Times-Herald to put up a purse of five thousand dollars for a race that was to be run along a course of 52½ miles and was to take place on Thanksgiving Day. About half-a-dozen daring drivers showed up for that one, and Frank Duryea, who had nursed his strange little buggy along the course to win at the clip of 5.5-1000 miles per hour. A man in a Benz came in second and then the crowd with their horse-drawn sleighs pushed out on the course and brought the race to an end with a gay winter scene.

The Vanderbilt Cup races, proving highly popular and whetting the appetite of the crowd for more speed and power, led on to the great track at Indianapolis and the thundering, grueling races that the spectators enjoy today.

Albert Werles Now "At Home" In El Cerrito

Now in their home on Lexington Avenue in El Cerrito are the newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emil Werle (Margot Dorothy Blume).

The young couple exchanged their vows at St. Ambrose Church last month, with Father Burns conducting the ritual.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. August F. Blume and the late Mr. Blume. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Karl Oellerich. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Werle of Berkeley.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were her attendants, Mesdames Rose Verdin and Vivian Uenber, bridesmaids. They were dressed in cocktail length coral chiffon dresses with matching shoes and veils, and carried aqua carnations. Matron of Honor was her sister, Mrs. Norma Hjelun, who was in aqua chiffon and carried a spray of red roses.

The bride wore imported chantilly lace, the dress featuring a scalloped neckline and chapel length train. A homemade crown of sequins, pearls and rhinestones, secured her full length hairloom veil, which was worn by her mother, her aunt, and her sister at their weddings. She carried a bouquet of carnations and bouvardia, centered with two white orchids.

Mrs. Blume, mother of the bride, wore a handmade dress of ice blue and silver brocade with matching hat. A lavender orchid was pinned at her shoulder.

CARBURETOR AT FAULT

Granting that the carburetor often is blamed for conditions that it does not cause, many motorists try to overcome faulty carburetor adjustment by changing gasolines. That, according to the National Automobile Club, seldom works.

Here's How Phone Calls Travel To Hawaiian Isles

When someone in Albany calls Hawaii by telephone, his voice could travel this path:

Along regular telephone wires to the overseas telephone center in Oakland, then through the air like a radio signal to Point Arena, and then 2400 miles under the Pacific Ocean to Hawaii.

The unusual route has been made possible with the inauguration of the new $37,000,000 telephone cable system from California to the Hawaiian Islands.

The new cable also has made it cheaper to call the islands. A three minute, station-to-station call now costs $5.25 if made at night, or on a Sunday or holiday. During the average week day, the call would cost $6.00.

The new cable, which can carry 36 conversations at the same time, will supplement the regular radio channels which have been handling telephone messages between Hawaii and the mainland.

Originally planned for construction in 1959, the new cable was inaugurated two years early because of defense needs for additional communication facilities to the Hawaiian Islands.

There is no joy to be had from retirement except by some kind of productive work. —Herbert Hoover.

ORDINANCE NO. 57-032
AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF ALBANY RELATING TO CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTERS.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALBANY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. PURPOSES. The declared purposes of this ordinance are to provide for the preparation and carrying out of plans for the civil defense of persons and property within this city in the event of a disaster, and to provide for the coordination of the civil defense and disaster functions of this city with all other public agencies and affected private persons, corporations and organizations. Any expenditures made in connection with such civil defense and disaster activities, including mutual aid activities, shall be deemed conclusively to be for the direct protection and benefit of the inhabitants and property of the City of Albany.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS. A. Civil Defense. As used in this ordinance, the term "civil defense" shall mean the preparation for, and the carrying out of, all emergency functions, other than functions for which military forces are primarily responsible, to prevent, minimize, and repair injury and damage resulting from disasters. It shall not include, nor does any provision of this ordinance apply to any condition relating to a labor controversy.

B. Disasters. As used in this ordinance, the term "disaster" shall mean actual or threatened enemy attack, sabotage, extraneous fire, flood, storm, epidemic, riot, earthquake or other public calamity.

D. Such deputy directors and chiefs of operating civil defense and disaster departments, services or divisions as are provided for by resolution pursuant to this ordinance.

E. Such representatives of civic, business, labor, veterans, professional or other organizations having an official group or organization in civil defense and disaster responsibility as may be appointed by the mayor upon recommendation of the director.

SECTION 4. CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COUNCIL. POWERS AND DUTIES. It shall be the duty of the Albany civil defense and disaster council, and it is hereby empowered, to review and recommend for adoption by the city council, civil defense and disaster and mutual aid plans and agreements and such ordinances and resolutions and rules and regulations as are necessary to implement such plans and agreements. The civil defense and disaster council shall meet upon call of the chairman or in his absence from the city or inability to call such meeting, upon the call of the vice chairman.

B. To request the Governor to proclaim a state of extreme emergency when in the opinion of the director the resources of the area or region are inadequate to cope with the disaster;

C. To control and direct the effort of the civil defense and disaster organization of this city for the accomplishment of the purposes of this ordinance;

D. To direct coordination and cooperation between divisions, services and staff of the civil defense and disaster organization of this city, and to resolve questions of authority and responsibility that may arise between them;

proclamation of a disaster as here-in provided, or the proclamation of a state of extreme emergency by the Governor or the State Director of Civil Defense, the director is hereby empowered:

A. To make and issue rules and regulations on matters reasonably related to the protection of life and property as affected by such disaster; provided, however, such rules and regulations must be confirmed at the earliest practicable time by the city council;

B. To obtain vital supplies, equipment and such other properties found lacking and needed for the protection of the life and property of the people, and bind the city for the fair value thereof, and if required immediately, to commandeer the same for public use;

C. To require emergency services of any city officer or employee and, in the event of the proclamation of a state of extreme emergency by the Governor in the region in which this city is located, to command the aid of as many citizens of this community as he thinks necessary in the execution of his duties; such persons shall be entitled to all privileges, benefits and immunities as are provided by state law for registered civil defense and disaster worker volunteers;

D. To requisition necessary personnel or material of any city department or agency;

E. To execute all of his ordinary powers as director, all of the special powers conferred upon him by this ordinance or by resolution adopted pursuant thereto, all powers conferred upon him by any statute, agreement approved by the city council, or by any other lawful authority, and in conformity with Section 38791 of the Government Code.

SECTION 7. CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER ORGANIZATION. All officers and employees of this city, together with those volunteer forces enrolled to aid them during a disaster, and all groups, organizations and persons who may by agreement or operation of law, including persons pressed into service under the provisions of Section 6 (c) of this ordinance, be charged with duties incident to the protection of life and property in this city during such disaster, shall constitute the civil defense and disaster organization of the city of Albany.

SECTION 8. DIVISIONS, SERVICES AND STAFF OF THE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER ORGANIZATION. The functions and duties of the Albany civil defense and disaster organization shall be distributed among such divisions, services and special staff as the city council shall prescribe by resolution.

The city council shall concurrently with the adoption of this ordinance, adopt a resolution setting forth the form of organization of divisions and services, the assignment of functions, duties and powers, the designation of officers and employees, insofar as possible the form of organization, titles and terminology shall conform to the recommendations of the Federal government and the Civil Defense agency of the State of California.

SECTION 9. PUNISHMENT OF VIOLATIONS. It shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed $500.00, or by imprisonment for not to exceed six months, or both, for any person during a disaster:

A. Willfully to obstruct, hinder or delay any member of the civil defense and disaster organization in the enforcement of any lawful rule or regulation issued pursuant to this ordinance or in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this ordinance;

B. To do any act forbidden by any lawful rules or regulations issued pursuant to this ordinance, if such act is of such a nature as to give, or be likely to give assistance to the enemy, or to imperil the lives or property of inhabitants of this city, or to prevent, hinder or delay the defense or protection thereof;

C. To wear, carry or display, without authority, any means of identification specified by the civil defense and disaster agency of the State.

SECTION 10. REPEAL OF CONFLICTING ORDINANCES. The following ordinances be, and they hereby are, repealed:

(a) Ordinance No. 547, upon which Ordinance No. 560, (c) Ordinance No. 639, (d) Ordinance No. 638.

Provided, that it is the intent of the city council in enacting this ordinance that it shall be considered a revision and continuation of the ordinance repealed by this ordinance, and the status of volunteers shall not be affected by such repeal; nor shall civil defense and disaster mutual aid plans and agreements, rules and regulations or resolutions adopted pursuant to such repealed ordinance be affected by such repeal until amended, modified, or superseded as provided in this ordinance.

SECTION 11. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts showing the urgency:

LEGAL NOTICE

The National Security Resources Board of the Federal Government has recently published its plan for the civil defense of the country. The State of California, acting in accordance with the Federal plan, has enacted and made immediately effective the Civil Defense Act of 1950. Both the Congress and the Legislature have adopted comprehensive civil defense and disaster laws. Both Federal and State plans contemplate immediate adoption of such local legislation as is necessary to put into operation a coordinated and effective civil defense and disaster program so that each citizen and each community will be ready in the event of a disaster to afford as complete protection as is possible to life and property.

In order that the laws of this city relating to civil defense and disaster may be brought into conformity with the Federal and State plans at the earliest possible date, it is necessary that this ordinance take effect immediately.

SECTION 12. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable.

SECTION 13. PUBLICATION. This ordinance shall be published in the Albany Times, a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Albany, which said newspaper is hereby designated for that purpose, and shall become effective immediately.

University ROTC

Supplements U.S.

Naval Academy

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps is the primary means of supplementing the output of the Naval Academy.

Northern California has two universities which contribute substantially to the output of "college Naval men". Students enrolled in the NROTC at either the University of California or Stanford University lead approximately the same life as their civilian contemporaries.

Captain D. B. Brokenshire, USN, and Colonel J. T. Wilbur, USMC, respective commanding officers of the Cal and Stanford NROTC units, rivals in the true Cal-Stanford spirit, both agree that although the continuous rigors of military discipline evident at Annapolis are not present, the NROTC is every bit as ready to serve his country as his Annapolis contemporary.

The Navy requires 4 hours of classes and 1 hour of drill each week. The rest of the midshipman's curriculum, with few exceptions, is up to him.

Cal and Stanford have an elaborate setup of training aids to help the student familiarize himself with the problems of gunnery, ship-handling and engineering.

We should accustom the mind to keep the best company by introducing it only to the best books. — Sydney Smith.
